

OBSEQUIES.

I. O. of R.—The members of the Order are here informed that it has been determined to accept the services of the Common Council, and to participate in the funeral solemnities "in honor of the lamented General CHARLES TAYLOR, President of the United States," on Tuesday, 22 Inst. The occasion will be held at the Hall of Washington, 20th Street, at which no risk will be incurred, the rooms being all comfortable, and it is hoped that our Town will be fully represented. Let the determination on the part of all our Brethren, to follow the banner of Rechaah on that day, — shall we show a becoming reverence for the nation's dead, and let it be known that we are the true and faithful sons of our Order.

Commemoration of the principles of our Order.
